BERN WOMEN'S MINISTRY MARKS DISTRICT WOMEN'S WEEK

(Reported by Deacon Isaac Boadu)

The Women's Ministry of Bern Assembly brought the activities of the District Women's week celebrations to an end in a grand style. The guest of honour was Mrs Konadu Yiadom Acquah (wife of the National Head).

Reading from John 4:28-30, she explained how the Samaritan woman after her encounter with Jesus, let go of any distractions by leaving her waterpot behind and running into the city to tell everyone about Him. Mrs Konadu Yiadom Acquah urged the women to emulate this example by forgetting what is behind and forging ahead to do the Master's will.

PIWC BASEL HOLDS PRAYER FESTIVAL IN ZURICH

(Reported by Anna Cissouma)

On Friday 25th February, PIWC Basel held a prayer festival at the Zurich Central Auditorium. Also in attendance were some members of PIWC Zurich and Zurich Central Assembly. The theme was LET MY PEOPLE GO (Exodus 5:1) with Elder Joseph Antwi (PIWC Basel Presiding Elder) as the main speaker. Different leaders across Zurich District took turns to lead the congregation in intensive prayer sessions. It was a very powerful atmosphere of word ministration, worship, prayer and testimonies. We look forward to the next edition.

THE BELT OF TRUTH

By Daniel Chachu
(PIWC Zurich)

First of all the belt of truth holds the upper parts (breastplate) and lower parts (e.g. metal strips that cover the groin area) of the armour. The belt also holds the receptacle for the sword (ie. the scabbard). Without the belt, components of the armour falls apart.

Beyond representing the virtues of sincerity and reality (based on the Greek root word for truth), the belt of truth represents Christ Himself. Without Christ at the center, everything else falls apart. Thus, to be equipped as a soldier, Christ must be at the center.
